

SEMINAIRE DE LA FONDATION FRANCE-JAPON DE L'EHESS PROGRAMME AFRIQUE-ASIE

Past and Present in Japanese African Studies A case of chronical transformation of Kassen's mud houses and families

Seminar organized by the program CRAA-ETRE
(Understanding the New relations between Africa and Asia: transversal space of research)

December 8, 2016 (15 :00- 17 :00)

EHESS (190 Avenue de France, 75013) CNRS Room 662, CEIAS

* The conference will be in English.

A Monographic study realized by :

Takao SHIMIZU (Researcher, Hiroshima University),
Hirohide KOBAYASHI (Associate Professor, Kyoto University),
Miku ITO (Researcher, National Museum of Ethnology),
Seiji NAKAO (Lectuerer, Chubu University) and
Samuel Barthaux (ex-Master Student, Kyoto University)

Speaker:

Takao Shimizu, Hiroshima University

Takao Shimizu is a researcher of Center for the Study of International Cooperation in Education (CICE) in Hiroshima University since 2016. Specialized in anthropology, child study and African area studies. He used to work on Japanese international NGOs and Research Institute for Humanity and Nature (2012-2016). His main work focuses on culture and survival strategy of children and youth on the street of West African urban area. In these years, he is working with NGOs securing children and Quranic schools.

Commentator : Pooja JAIN (EHESS-FFJ, Science Po.)

INSCRIPTION : ffj@ehess.fr