

2nd Expert Group meeting on “economics of ageing”

30 May 2024 | 16.00 - 17.30 (Tokyo time); 9.00 - 10.30 (Paris time) | In English

*Online or onsite (by invitation only) at: The Canon Institute for Global Studies (CIGS)/ キヤノングローバル戦略研究所, 11th Floor, Shin Marunouchi Building, 5-1 Marunouchi 1-chome, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo 100-6511 Japan
Conference room No.3*

Contacts: +81 (0)3-6213-0550 (CIGS); celine.caliaro@ehess.fr (FFJ)

This year, the FFJ-Banque de France lab will concentrate its activities on the relationship between demography and economics. Due to the nature of the topic, which is quite broad, it is proposed to narrow it down and focus on the economics of ageing, with two primary directions:

- Fiscal sustainability and price dynamics in an ageing economy
- Innovation and human capital in an ageing economy

Besides the regular conferences on June 14 (in Paris) and December 2 (in Tokyo), we decided to launch a Japanese-French expert group to facilitate a knowledge exchange opportunity and promote research coordination that allows the researchers to work collaboratively to produce new knowledge. We provide the opportunity for mid-career and junior researchers to present their research, which allows senior researchers to comment on their works.

This is our 2nd expert group for this year and the additional meeting will be planned soon:

- 3rd expert group meeting on September 2024 (hybrid)
- 4th expert group meeting on October 2024 (hybrid)

Programme

(Tokyo time)

16.00 | Opening remarks

Sébastien LECHEVALIER (President, Fondation France-Japon de l'EHESS)

Brieuc MONFORT (Associate professor, Sophia University)

Yuki TADA (Post-doctoral researcher, Fondation France Japon-EHESS)

Presentation 1 - “Why Ageing Induces Deflation and Secular Stagnation?” with Daisuke IKEDA

16:05 - 16:40

Speaker: R.Anton BRAUN (Professor, the National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies (GRIPS), CIGS)

Q&A session | Ask your questions

Presentation 2 - “Health capacity to work among older persons in Asia: Key findings from a regional comparative study”

16:40 - 17:25

Speaker: Takashi OSHIO (Emeritus professor, Hitotsubashi University)

Q&A session | Ask your questions

17.25 | Concluding remarks

