財団概要

日本とフランスを跨ぐ大学基金

EHESS日仏財団（Fondation France-Japon de l’EHESS）は、日仏間の知的交流を促進し、公共と民間のパートナーシップや国際的専門家ネットワークを通じて日本の研究を奨励することを目的として、2009年にフランス国立社会科学高等研究院（EHESS）内に設立されました。EHESSは、世界中で高い評価と知名度を有するフランスの人文・社会科学分野の高等教育及び研究機関です。

日仏財団は、人文社会科学の分野における学際研究および研究者の創出を実現し、貴重な研究機会を研究者に提供できるよう、官民との連携にも努め、学術機関、企業、政府、文化機関、社会组织間の産学官連携強化を図ります。

五つの活動領域

- 欧州研究コミュニティ全体として日本人研究者の参画拡大を推進するために、日本人研究者及び専門家を招いた講演会・セミナー等を開催
- 国際共同研究プログラムを展開
  - アジアの資本主義
  - 不平等、社会的信念と福祉システム
  - アジア・アフリカ間の新たな地域編成
  - 「食」のまなざし
  - 科学と社会
- 研究者に対して欧州における研究動向や研究者ネットワークへのアクセスが容易になるよう最良の環境を提供するために、フェローシップ及び短期招聘プログラムを展開。
- 本研究センターは年間約10名の研究フエローを招聘しています。

寄附講座一覧

- エア・リキードフェローシップ：現代日本における消費形態と食糧生産プロセスの進化を欧州との比較の観点から調査することで、食習慣と健康及び環境への影響に関する根幹的な問題に取り組む
- フランス銀行フェローシップ：過去30年における日本のマクロ経済動向、日本政府と日本銀行によって実施された政策のより深い理解に資する研究を促進する
- ミシュランフェローシップ：日本における公共イノベーション政策の目的、制度的構造、実施手段、およびそれらの軌跡を欧州との比較の観点から明らかにすることを目的として創設された
- ルノーフェローシップ：日本及び欧州における車利用の変容と新しい交通サービスの影響の理解に努め、モビリティ分野における社会技術的変化を消費者の需要、メーカーの供給及び仲介者の観点から調査する
- トヨタフェローシップ：モビリティと社会インフラストラクチャーを主テーマに、技術的可能性と社会的課題の複雑な相互作用が、2030-2050年において欧州と新興国のモビリティの将来像をどのよう形作るかを調査するための一連の研究活動を展開する
- ヴァレオフェローシップ：持続可能な開発のための革新技術、特に新世代ロボット工学、エネルギー問題および高齢化時代のモビリティの拡大に貢献する可能性のあるアクター、技術および社会的要因を分析する

法人・団体からのご協力

日仏財団は、フランスと日本の大学基金の役割を果たし、社会で知人における文化的・学術的な学び、交流の場を構築し、ユーヨーオリエンテッドな学びを支えます。EHESSの研究者や学生がフランスの大学基金を活かすための新たな研究プログラムを支援します。

組織構成

理事長

セバスチャン・ルシュヴァリエ

社会科学高等研究院日仏財団初代理事長、同院教授。専門は日本経済学、資本主義の多様性、産業ダイナミクス、不平等の政治経済学。東京・日仏会館研究員、一橋大学客員研究員、東京大学客員研究員を経て現職。主著「日本資本主義の大転換」（岩波書店、2015年）。2013年よりフランス・アジア研究者ネットワーク所長（GIS ASIE）。

副理事長

クリスチャン・ソテール

About us

A University Foundation Bridging Japan and France

Established in 2009 in Paris, the Fondation France-Japon (FFJ) de l’EHESS aims to facilitate and promote international exchanges for the greater presence of Japan specialists with better integration into the French research community and public debates. The École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (EHESS) and the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS) founded the FFJ to encourage and develop intellectual exchanges for the greater presence of Japan in the European research landscape and public debates. The École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (EHESS) and the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS) founded the FFJ to encourage and develop intellectual exchanges for the greater presence of Japan in the European research landscape and public debates.

Five Main Actions:

- Organizing seminars, conferences and debates involving Japan specialists across Asia, Europe, North America and Africa, as well as five doctoral and postdoctoral researchers.
- Providing opportunities for fellowship and short-term invitations programs for students and researchers.
- Organizing seminars, conferences and debates involving Japanese researchers and experts in academia, administration, diplomacy, and business.
- Launching international joint research programs in these two countries and in Europe.
- Seeking to contribute to the development of collaborative research institutions for higher education in social sciences.

Together with our partners—academia, industry and government in Japan and in France—we seek to contribute to the development of collaborative research institutions in two countries and in Europe.

Organizations

President

Sébastien Lechevalier is founding President of the Fondation France-Japon and professor of Political Science and International Relations at the University of Tokyo. He currently serves as Director of the French Network for Asian Studies (CEAFJP) (see p. 5).

Vice President

Christian Sautter co-founded the Centre d’Études Avancées Franco-Japonaises de Paris (CEAFJP) (see p. 5) and is vice-president of the Fondation France-Japon since 2009. He is professor at the École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (EHESS) and the University of Tokyo. He currently serves as Director of the French Network for Asian Studies (CEAFJP).

Board of Trustees

The Fondation France-Japon de l’EHESS is a non-profit organization and is governed by a Board of Trustees composed of the Founding President, three founding members, five qualified persons and three contributors.

Visiting Researchers

The Centre invites ten Japanese scholars and Japan experts every year. The Centre offers research associates, access to European research facilities, and the extension of mobility in the era of an aging population.

Research Fellowship Programs

- CEAFJP Fellowship
- Toyota Fellowship
- Michelin Fellowship
- Valeo Fellowship

Current socio-technological changes in the transportation sector — including autonomous, connected, electric and automated vehicles — in Japan, Korea, and European countries.

Mobility Services for an Aging Population

The Fellow analyzes the actors, the technologies, and the means of action in public innovation policies in Japan and France in the coming decades. The program is to highlight the aims, the institutional structure and the policies implemented by the Japanese government and the Bank of Japan over last three decades.

This program aims at providing researchers with the best possible access to European research institutions and financial means that may contribute to the emergence of innovative technologies for a sustainable mobility.

The Fellow analyzes the actors, the technologies, and the means of action in public innovation policies in Japan and France in the coming decades. The program is to highlight the aims, the institutional structure and the policies implemented by the Japanese government and the Bank of Japan over last three decades. The Fellow analyzes the actors, the technologies, and the means of action in public innovation policies in Japan and France in the coming decades. The program is to highlight the aims, the institutional structure and the policies implemented by the Japanese government and the Bank of Japan over last three decades.

The Fellow analyzes the actors, the technologies, and the means of action in public innovation policies in Japan and France in the coming decades. The program is to highlight the aims, the institutional structure and the policies implemented by the Japanese government and the Bank of Japan over last three decades.

This program aims at providing researchers with the best possible access to European research institutions and financial means that may contribute to the emergence of innovative technologies for a sustainable mobility.
Launching International Joint Research Programs

Five Main Actions:

1. Together with our partners—academia, industry and government in Japan and in France—we seek to contribute to the development of collaborative research in these two countries and in Europe.

2. In order to facilitate and promote intellectual exchanges for the greater presence of Japanese and French scholars in the academic community through the Centre for French-Japanese Advanced Studies in Paris (CEAFJP) (see p. 5)

3. The Foundation hosts up to ten visiting researchers for either short-term or three founding members, five qualified persons and three contributors.

4. The Board of Trustees offers administrative and academic guidance to the Foundation. It is composed of sixteen members: five members from the EHESS, three founding members, five qualified persons and three contributors.

5. The Foundation is supported by distinguished personalities coming from academia, administration, diplomacy, and business.

Organization

President
Sébastien Lechevalier is founding President of the Foundation France-Japon and Professor at the EHESS. Being an expert in the Japanese economy, he was previously a visiting researcher at the Hitotsubashi University. He has also taught at the Ecole des hautes études en sciences sociales (EHESS) in Paris where he serves as Director of the French Network for Asian Studies (GIS Asie).

Vice President
Christian Blot is co-founder of the Centre des recherches sur le Japon de l’EHESS (CRJE) in迹 and is Vice President of the Foundation France-Japon since 2009. He is former French Minister of Economy, Finance, and Industry (1999 to 2000), and Deputy Mayor of Paris between 2000-2008.

Board of Trustees
The Foundation board offers administrative and academic guidance to the Foundation. It is composed of fifteen members: three founding members, five qualified persons and three contributors.

Visiting Researchers
The Foundation funds up to ten visiting researchers for either short-term or long-term periods every year.

Research Associates
The Foundation has four research programs originating from various universities, joint research institutions, and think tanks, and in its two doctoral and post-doctoral members.

Distinguished Supporters
The Foundation proudly recognizes its distinguished personalities coming from academia, administration, diplomacy, and business.

Partners
Public and Private Partnerships in Japan and Europe

The Foundation France-Japon de l’EHESS receives approval as a university foundation (Fondation universitaire) by the French government. It allows corporate donors that pay taxes in France to benefit from a tax reduction of 60% of the donated amount. It allows corporate donors that pay taxes in France to benefit from a tax reduction of 60% of the donated amount.

The Fondation France-Japon de l'EHESS received approval as a university foundation (Fondation universitaire) by the French government. It allows corporate donors that pay taxes in France to benefit from a tax reduction of 60% of the donated amount.

The Fondation France-Japon de l'EHESS received approval as a university foundation (Fondation universitaire) by the French government. It allows corporate donors that pay taxes in France to benefit from a tax reduction of 60% of the donated amount.

The Fondation France-Japon de l'EHESS received approval as a university foundation (Fondation universitaire) by the French government. It allows corporate donors that pay taxes in France to benefit from a tax reduction of 60% of the donated amount.

The Fondation France-Japon de l'EHESS received approval as a university foundation (Fondation universitaire) by the French government. It allows corporate donors that pay taxes in France to benefit from a tax reduction of 60% of the donated amount.

The Fondation France-Japon de l'EHESS received approval as a university foundation (Fondation universitaire) by the French government. It allows corporate donors that pay taxes in France to benefit from a tax reduction of 60% of the donated amount.

CEA Fellowship

The Centre for French-Japanese Advanced Studies in Paris (Centre d’Etudes Avancées Franco-Japonaises de Paris, CEAFJP) was inaugurated by the Foundation France-Japon in 2009. It focuses on enhancing international research and teaching initiatives in Japan with Europe. It is supported through public and private sponsors in Japan and France. The Centre also seeks to build partnerships with Japanese and French institutions for higher education in social sciences.

Research Fellowship Programs

- Science and Society
- Scales of Alimentation
- New Territorialities Between Asia and Africa
- Attitudes Towards Inequality Social Belief and Welfare Systems
- Asian Capitalisms
- Mobility and Society
- Visions of the Future
- Transnational Networks
- Asia and Europe in the Digital Era
- Working Toward a New Europe
- Innovations in Transportation and Logistics

The CEAFJP Fellowship program organizes a set of research activities to examine the convergence of economic trends and new mobility, i.e. a new generation of robotics, energy issues and institutional and financial means that may contribute to the extension of mobility in the era of an aging population.

The CEAFJP Fellowship program organizes a set of research activities to examine the convergence of economic trends and new mobility, i.e. a new generation of robotics, energy issues and institutional and financial means that may contribute to the extension of mobility in the era of an aging population.

The CEAFJP Fellowship program organizes a set of research activities to examine the convergence of economic trends and new mobility, i.e. a new generation of robotics, energy issues and institutional and financial means that may contribute to the extension of mobility in the era of an aging population.

The CEAFJP Fellowship program organizes a set of research activities to examine the convergence of economic trends and new mobility, i.e. a new generation of robotics, energy issues and institutional and financial means that may contribute to the extension of mobility in the era of an aging population.

The CEAFJP Fellowship program organizes a set of research activities to examine the convergence of economic trends and new mobility, i.e. a new generation of robotics, energy issues and institutional and financial means that may contribute to the extension of mobility in the era of an aging population.

Contact

For more information please contact:
Contact Manager: Taihei Fujii (FFJ)
+33 (0) 49 54 63 29 / ffj@ehess.fr

www.ehess.fr
Launching International Joint Research Programs

Five Main Actions:
- Promotion of international joint research programs with Japan and in France to facilitate and promote intellectual exchanges for the greater presence of Japan in the European research landscape and public debates. The École des hautes études en sciences sociales (EHESS) is one of the largest European institutions for higher education in social sciences.
- Together with our partners—academia, industry and government in Japan and institutions for higher education in social sciences in France—we aim to contribute to the development of collaboration research in these two countries and in Europe.

Five Main Actions:
- Organising seminars, conferences and debates involving Japanese expertise and spreading awareness of such knowledge in France.
- Launching international joint research programs across Asia, Europe, North America and Africa, as well as five doctoral and post-doctoral programs for students and researchers and experts.
- Providing opportunities for fellowship and short-term invitation programs.
- Organizing seminars, conferences and debates involving Japanese expertise and spreading awareness of such knowledge in France.
- Establishing in 2009 in Paris, the Fondation France-Japon (FFJ) de l'EHESS aims at providing researchers with the best possible access to European research resources and networks.

Vice President

Christian Sautter co-founded the Centre de recherches sur le Japon (formally known as the Groupe de recherches sur le Japon) at the EHESS in 1973 and is a former president of the FFJ. He is currently a visiting professor at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Economics, and industry (1990 to 1998) and a Deputy Mayor of Paris between 2008-2014.

Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees, i.e. a governing body of FFJ, is composed of sixteen members: five members from the EHESS, three founding members, five qualified persons and three contributors.

Visiting Researchers

The Foundation hosts six to ten visiting researchers for short-term periods every year.

Research Associates

The Foundation has made research associations from various universities and research institutions in France and abroad and is, as well as a doctoral and post-doctoral membership.

Distinguished Supporters

The Foundation has been recognized by distinguished personalities coming from academia, administration, diplomacy, and business.

Public and Private Partnerships in Japan and Europe

The Foundation France-Japon de l'EHESS reviews approval as an umbrella organization, supported by flourishes, especially with the help of its partners in Japan and Europe. It allows corporate donors that pay taxes in France to benefit from a tax deduction.

Partners

Air Liquide Fellowship

This program is designed to support and strengthen collaborative research programs involving the FFJ. It organizes a set of research activities to examine the issues related to contemporary energy and societal challenges with a focus on understanding the evolution of consumption modes and food systems in an aging population.

Michelin Fellowship

The basic rationale behind the creation of the Michelin Chair is to encourage research on research and development (R&D) and technological innovation in the automotive industry, i.e. a new generation of robotics, energy issues and the emergence of innovative technologies for a sustainable future.

Toyota Fellowship

The fellowship aims to provide financial support to scholars from Japan and the University of Tokyo. It allows corporate donors that pay taxes in France to benefit from a tax deduction.

CEAFJP Fellowship

For more information please contact:
+33 (0) 1 49 54 83 29
ffj@ehess.fr
　54 boulevard Raspail 75006 Paris FRANCE

The Centre for French-Japanese Advanced Studies in Paris (Centre d'études japonaises avancées en sciences et arts (CEAFJP) (see p. 5)

Research Fellowship Programs

Air Liquide Fellowship

This program supports scientists related to contemporary energy and societal challenges with a focus on understanding the evolution of consumption modes and food systems in an aging population.

Michelin Fellowship

The basic rationale behind the creation of the Michelin Chair is to encourage research on research and development (R&D) and technological innovation in the automotive industry, i.e. a new generation of robotics, energy issues and the emergence of innovative technologies for a sustainable future.

Toyota Fellowship

The fellowship aims to provide financial support to scholars from Japan and the University of Tokyo. It allows corporate donors that pay taxes in France to benefit from a tax deduction.

CEAFJP Fellowship

The Centre for French-Japanese Advanced Studies in Paris (Centre d’études japonaises avancées en sciences et arts) (CEAFJP) was inaugurated by the Fondation France-Japon in 2013. It focuses on academic and institutional initiatives and is oriented as a functional equivalent of the Maison des Sciences de l’Homme (MSH) in Paris.

Public and Private Partnerships in Japan and Europe

The Fondation France-Japon de l’EHESS reviews approval as an umbrella organization, supported by flourishes, especially with the help of its partners in Japan and Europe. It allows corporate donors that pay taxes in France to benefit from a tax deduction.
Launching International Joint Research Programs in these two countries and in Europe.
Together with our partners—academia, industry and government in Japan and institutions for higher education in social sciences.

To facilitate and promote intellectual exchanges for the greater presence of Japan in the European research landscape and public debates. The École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (EHESS) in Paris, a French research university in the social sciences, was founded in 1953 by Pierre Bourdieu and other thinkers from the French School of Théorie duConstruit (TDC).

Established in 2009 in Paris, the Fondation France-Japon (FFJ) de l’EHESS aims to facilitate and promote intellectual exchanges for the greater presence of Japan in the European research landscape and public debates. The École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (EHESS) in Paris, a French research university in the social sciences, was founded in 1953 by Pierre Bourdieu and other thinkers from the French School of Théorie duConstruit (TDC).

A University Foundation Bridging Japan and France

Organizations

President

Sidibélaye Diakité is founding President of the Fondation France-Japon and professor at CEAFJP, being an active player in promotion of institutional and financial means that may contribute to the extension of mobility in the era of an aging population.

Vice President

Christian Baday is co-founder of the Centre de recherches sur l’Asie du Sud-Est (CERS) on the Japan of the EHESS in 1972 and is vice-President of the Fondation France-Japon since 2010. He is French Minister of Economy, Finance, and Industry (1999 to 2002) and a Deputy Mayor of Paris between 2000-2014.

Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees offers administrative and academic guidance to the Foundation. It is composed of sixteen members: five members from the EHESS, five from the Japanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs, three foundations in Paris, three founding members, five qualified persons and three contributors.

Research Associates

The Foundation hosts up to ten visiting researchers for either short-term or long-term periods every year.

Distinguished Supporters

The Fondation France-Japon de l’EHESS is favored by distinguished personalities coming from academia, administration, diplomacy, and industry.

About us

This program aims at providing researchers with the best possible access to European research resources and networks.

Research Fellowship Programs

CEAIF Fellowship

The Centre for French-Japanese Advanced Studies in Paris (Centre d’Études Avancées Franco-Japonais de Paris, CEAFJP) was inaugurated by the Fondation France-Japon in 2009. It focuses on endeavors to develop academic research and research-innovation programs and is considered as a functional equivalent of the Maisons Franco-Japonaises in Paris. It is supported by the Japanese government through public and private sponsors in Japan and Europe. The Centre’s activities are inspired by the findings of academic research and innovation programs.

The Foundation at the heart of the academic and broad research community of the Japan and Europe.

The Centre for French-Japanese Advanced Studies in Paris (Centre d’Études Avancées Franco-Japonais de Paris, CEAFJP) was inaugurated by the Fondation France-Japon in 2009. It focuses on endeavors to develop academic research and research-innovation programs and is considered as a functional equivalent of the Maisons Franco-Japonaises in Paris. It is supported by the Japanese government through public and private sponsors in Japan and Europe. The Centre’s activities are inspired by the findings of academic research and innovation programs.

Visiting Researchers

The Foundation offers five visiting research positions for either short-term or long-term periods every year.

The Centre invites ten Japanese scholars and Japan experts every year.

Partners

The Foundation France-Japan de l’EHESS welcomes proposals from universities, public and private institutions for higher education in social sciences.

The FFJ serves as a major academic network for the development of collaborative research in these two countries and in Europe.

The Centre at the heart of the academic and broad research community of the Japan and Europe.

The Centre for French-Japanese Advanced Studies in Paris (Centre d’Études Avancées Franco-Japonais de Paris, CEAFJP) was inaugurated by the Fondation France-Japon in 2009. It focuses on endeavors to develop academic research and research-innovation programs and is considered as a functional equivalent of the Maisons Franco-Japonaises in Paris. It is supported by the Japanese government through public and private sponsors in Japan and Europe. The Centre’s activities are inspired by the findings of academic research and innovation programs.

Contact

For more information please contact:

+33 (0) 1 49 54 83 29 / ffj@ehess.fr

54 boulevard Raspail 75006 Paris FRANCE