

SEMINAIRE DE LA FONDATION FRANCE-JAPON DE L'EHESS

Inequalities in Japan, revisited

Workshop organized by the
Fondation France-Japon de l'EHESS

Paris, 8 February 2013

Venue: Salle Maurice et Denys Lombard, 96 bd Raspail 75006 Paris
Métro Notre-Dame-des-Champs or Saint-Placide

Registrations are mandatory at ffj@ehess.fr

□ PROGRAM

9:00am - 9:10am: Introduction by Ryo Kambayashi (Hitotsubashi University) & Sébastien Lechevalier (EHESS)

9h10am - 10:00am: Sachiko Kuroda (Waseda University)
"Evidence of a Growing Inequality in Work Timing Using a Japanese Time-Use Survey"
(With Isamu Yamamoto, Keio University)
Discussant: Philippe Askenazy (CNRS)

10:00am - 10:50am: Arnaud Lefranc (Cergy Pontoise University)
"Intergenerational earnings mobility in Japan among sons and daughters: levels and trends"
(With Fumiaki Ojima, Doshisha University, & Takashi Yoshida, Shizuoka University)
Discussant: Anna Christina D'Addio (OECD)

10:50am: Pause

11:00am - 11:50am: Ryo Kambayashi (Hitotsubashi University)
"Good Jobs, Bad Jobs, and the Great Recession: Lessons from Japan's Lost Decade"
(With Takao Kato, Colgate University)
Discussant: Andrew Clark (CNRS)

11:50am - 12:40pm: Sébastien Lechevalier (EHESS)
"Wage and Productivity Differentials in Japan: The Role of Labor Market Mechanisms"
(With Yannick Kalantzis, Banque de France, & Ryo Kambayashi, Hitotsubashi University)
Discussant: Héloïse Petit (CEE & Paris 1)

12:40pm: General discussion

1:00pm: End